Bruce R. Flanagan "GOOD SAMARITAN" Award.

- May be a REALTOR® or Affiliate member of EPCAR or an individual not affiliated with the Association but whose contribution to the real estate industry has effectively enhanced the quality or use of real property.
- Recipient should be one whose unselfish participation and efforts in non-industry activities have been exemplary in charitable, civic, religious, educational, or political affairs. Recipient could also be one who has a strong influence in the enhancement of the arts, athletics, or recreation for the benefit of the public.
- Recipient's individual achievements should be given major consideration, not one's fame or prominence.
- If awarded posthumously, the recipient's achievements should be recognized rather than the individual eulogized.
- Recognition of a whole way of life is the goal to be achieved in considering all qualifications.
